

GRIEVANCE FORM

A grievance, whether personal or professional, is a real or perceived injustice, unfair treatment or wrong. Informal and formal grievance processes must be initiated by the parties involved. (see Grievance Policy and Procedure). No prejudice should be attached to persons who choose to use grievance processes.

Not all grievances need to come to the Grievance Committee; they should be settled at the lowest possible level in the College organization. Grievances may not be formally processed unless informal efforts at resolution have been made. In certain circumstances employees may not be comfortable approaching other colleagues or their immediate supervisor. In such cases any executive officer may be contacted for advice.

Complainants must meet and discuss grievance with a co-convener chair of the Grievance Committee prior to completing this form.
